Indian Construction

Journal for the Indian Architecture, Building and Construction Industry

'Indian Construction' - the journal for the Indian ABC industry is being published every month successfully and continuously for more than last eight decades. With a captive subscriber base, 'Indian Construction' has a reach across the length and breadth of India. And what's more we back or prove our circulation claims by providing our subscribers list (comprising of contractors, developers, architects, consultants, etc.). With a primary aim of giving service to the constituents of the Indian ABC industry, the journal carries information useful for the day-to-day running of the business. Statistical figures useful for tendering and billing; judgements on taxation, labour and other related issues; information on latest methodology of doing business vis-à-vis machinery, methods and financial engineering; etc. form the core of the journal. Apart from sending 'Complimentary Copies' to Government organisations and/or officials, with whom the Indian ABC industry has a working relation, the journal is also subscribed to by educational institutions across India imparting knowledge in the ABC industry.

Readership Profile

All India Readership

Product profile, company profile, etc. are regularly carried in the pages of the journal.

It is estimated that each copy of 'Indian Construction' is read not less than 6 persons.
